CULTURAL CENTRE SOFIA

Cultural Centre Sofia is an independent organization but it works in close cooperation and with the blessing of the Orthodox Church and the Diocese of Helsinki. The center is owned by the Foundation of the Finnish Orthodox Cultural Centre. It is located at seafront in Vuosaari, in Eastern part of Helsinki. The chairman of the board of the Foundation is Metropolitan Ambrosius, the bishop of the Orthodox diocese of Helsinki. The diocesan office of the Orthodox Diocese of Helsinki is located on the premises of the centre.

There is a lot interest towards the Orthodox church in the Helsinki area. Cultural Centre Sofia was founded to develop and display the culture and the spiritual tradition of the Eastern Church, and to bring it within the reach of the public at large. Sofia has created a space where it is possible through scholarly study, education, art, contemplation, and reflection on contemporary ethical issues, to go deeply into Orthodoxy and thus expand one's spiritual sphere of experience. The centre also serves as a meeting point between the East and the West, where genuine international atmosphere and the ecumenical interaction of the churches is present.

Sofia organizes seminars, lectures, exhibitions, and other events on culture and religion. In addition, it places its premises at the disposal of visiting scholars and artists. Thus the centre serves as a bridge linking everyday life and holiness. It provides an inspiring setting for joint projects of religion and art, and for discussion towards the intellectual interpretation and understanding of spiritual experience.

Apart from individual visitors, the Centre also caters for the needs of NGOs and business companies wishing to develop their expertise and organize educational activities to discuss such issues as ecology, contemporary culture, management and business ethics.

The visitors have an opportunity to participate in the daily and weekly liturgical life in the chapel of the Centre. Vespers are served daily (Mon-Fri) at 5 pm and matins daily (Mon-Fri) at 8.30 am. On Tuesdays the Jesus prayer at 6 pm, on Thursdays the Akathist to the Mother of God at 5.30 pm. There are often also services on Saturdays and Sundays.

The main building of Sofia houses an auditorium that has 220 seats, a number of smaller conference rooms, a restaurant and a chapel. The accommodation consists of 72 rooms of tourist hotel standard.
