Conference / Meetings

The plenary sessions will take place on Friday, 25 May and Saturday, 26 May 2007 in the Plenary Hall of the National Council of the Slovak Republic. The Speaker of the National Council of the Slovak Republic, Mr Pavol Paška will chair the Conference. The seating in the Plenary Hall will be arranged according to English alphabetical order.

Due to the limited number of seats available, only three persons per delegation of a unicameral parliament (Speaker, Secretary General, Ambassador/Member of delegation), and five persons per delegation of a bicameral parliament (Speakers, Secretaries General, Ambassador/Member of delegation) will be seated in the Plenary Hall itself. Other members of delegations and embassy representatives can watch a live broadcast of the Conference sessions in the Cinema, located on the ground floor.

The speaking time for rapporteurs' or Speakers' addresses will be limited to a maximum of 15 minutes. Any Speaker wishing to present a short address or contribution to the floor should indicate the fact in the Registration Form. All the participants seated in the Plenary Hall will be able to join in the discussion by registering/signalling electronically from their seat.

Please note that the use of mobile phones in the Plenary Hall will not be permitted. Similarly, no drinks or food will be allowed in the Plenary Hall. During the Conference, coffee, tea and refreshment will be served in the corridors adjacent to the Plenary Hall.

Meeting rooms will be made available for bilateral meetings (for reservation, please contact an organizer).

Interpreting / Language regime

In compliance with the principles of the new language regime introduced in Budapest in 2005, the National Council of the Slovak Republic as the host parliament will provide and cover the technical facilities for interpretation.

Parliaments are entitled to bring their own interpreters. Those who do not want to bring their own interpreters can ask an organizer to arrange for the interpreters for their languages at their own cost.

Parliaments may however choose to speak one of the languages that have been set up as technical base languages (English or French), and share the costs of interpretation with all the other parliaments doing so.

Please do not forget to mark the chosen language regime modality in the Registration Form.

Registration and security

Conference Registration Desks will be located at the receptions of the contracted hotels, and at the reception of the National Council of the Slovak Republic. Participants will receive their identity badges and other materials at the Conference Reception Desks in the contracted hotels on Thursday, 24 May 2007 from 2 pm to 10 pm. Those arriving later can also register on Friday, 25 May 2007 from 8 am, at the Conference Registration Desks in the contracted hotels, and at the National Council of the Slovak Republic.

All participants are requested to wear their identity badges throughout the entire Conference. Presentation of the badge is required by the participants and accompanying partners for admission to the Conference venue and the scheduled cultural events, as well as on all transport organised for the Conference.

Identity badges with the following colour codes will be distributed:

Red	-	Speaker
Dark Blue	-	Secretary General
Light Blue	-	Delegation Member / Accompanying Partner / Embassy
Green	-	Interpreter
Brown	-	Security
	-	Press
Orange	-	Organizer
Grey	-	Catering Staff

Participants are also asked to carry their personal ID cards or passports with them at all time.

Security will be provided by the Bureau for the Protection of Constitutional Officials and Diplomatic Missions. The Bureau will be securing the different venues of the Conference sessions and events, as well as the transport routes and buses. The Bureau will also provide a police escort from and to the border crossing in the case of delegations arriving by car.

Only one armed member of security per Speaker/delegation will be admitted to the premises of the Conference.
