ECONOMIC FORUM

Warsaw, June 28, 2011

Dear Sir,

On behalf of the Institute for Eastern Studies I would like to invite you to attend the 21st Economic Forum (Krynica Zdrój, Poland, 7-9 September 2011). The Economic Forum in Krynica is one of the most significant international events in Central Europe. It has been held annually since 1991 by the Warsaw-based Institute for Eastern Studies in the picturesque mountain resort of Krynica in southern Poland. Every year, the Forum brings together high-level participants from more than 60 countries, with the aim to develop dialogue and cooperation among European countries and their partners.

We would highly appreciate if you accept our invitation to contribute as a speaker to one of the debates held during the Forum:

UE and Russia in XXI century

At the dawn of the new millennium Russia and the European Union are confronted with unseen challenges, which overlap with problems, inherited from the past. Western and Eastern parts of Europe consider each other strategic partners. However there are still many hurdles on this way in spite of the fact that domestic and foreign pressures push both sides towards each other. If a final reunion of Europe, only partly successful after the end of the Cold War, is not achieved the Old World is bound to become a fading centre of power in the new century.

The panel will be moderated by Mr Alexey Gromyko, Deputy Director of Institute of Europe, Russian Academy of Sciences.

Invited Speakers:

Derek L. Averre, United Kingdom, University of Birmingham - Director of CREES
Thomas Gomart, France, French Institute of International Relations (IFRI) -
Tadeusz Iwinski, Poland, Sejm of the Republic of Poland - MP, Member of the Foreign Affairs Committee
Helena Rytovuori-Apunen, Finland, Tampere Peace Research Institute - Senior Research Fellow
Tatjana Ždanoka, Latvia, European Parliament - MEP

Looking forward to your reply.
