SECRETAR GENERAL ,

Embassy of Israel
BUCHAREST

Bucharest,

February 17, 2015

Excellency,

The Embassy of the State of Israel in Romania jointly with the Scheherazade Foundation would like to initiate an international conference aimed at raising awareness and exchanging best practices on the important issue of fighting violence against women.

This conference is due to take place in Bucharest, on 19 May 2015, with the participation of high-level representatives from governmental authorities, stakeholders, the diplomatic corps, academy, non-governmental organizations, and professional specialists in Romania and abroad affiliated with this domain.

The key-note speaker will be Mrs. Linor Abargil, former Israeli Miss World crowned in 1998, who became a prominent activist by turning a traumatic personal experience into a positive drive to help other women.

Violence against women represents a violation of basic human rights and it is still one of the major universal challenges faced by all societies nowadays. Romania, Israel, as well as other countries place high emphasis in their national agenda on the prevention, prosecution, and protection of violence against women and of gender discrimination, through a holistic approach of political will, as well as legal and civil actions.

Therefore, we would kindly ask the Chamber of Deputies, under the patronage of President Valeriu Zgonea, to join our efforts in organizing this important event in Bucharest, by bestowing us the honour of being one of the main partners. In this respect, we would also request free of charge allocation of the Nicolae Iorga Hall for the date of the conference, together with all necessary technical facilities, such as video-projector, microphones, interpretation and translation equipment.

Dan Ben-Eliezer

Ambassador of Israel in Romania
